HEADS: SESSION SEEN

Henderson Takes Back Reply To Herr Hitler

BOTH HOUSES OF PARLIAMENT WILL RE-ASSEMBLE TO-DAY, ACCORDING TO REUTER. THE MEETING IS EXPECTED TO BE SHORT CONSIST-ING MAINLY OF A STATEMENT ON THE POSITION BY MR. CHAMBERLAIN AND BRIEF SPEECHES BY THE OPPOSITION LEADERS.

ALL MEASURES THAT WOULD BE NECESSITAT-ED ON THE POLITICAL SIDE, IF WAR IS IMMINENT, ARE IN READINESS AND COULD BE CARRIED THROUGH IN A FEW HOURS.

These envisage a War Cabinet of approximately seven members with a larger body conducting departmental work.

There is reason to believe that Sir Archibald Sinclair, Leader of the Liberal Opposition, would accept immediately an invitation to join the reconstructed Cabinet but whether Mr. C. R. Attlee (Leader of the Labour Opposition) or Mr. Arthur Greenwood (Deputy Leader) would be Labour's selection is a matter for a full meeting of the Labour Party.

It is believed that the necessary consultations would be swift and the formation of an All-Party Government not delayed should an emergency arise. Similarly, all objections hitherto existing against the return of Mr. Winston Churchill, Mr. Anthony Eden (formerly Foreign Secretary) and Mr. W. A. Duff Cooper (formerly First Lord of the Admiralty) have been removed.

Yesterday the Cabinet met for 50 minutes and, it is understood, finally approved of the reply to Herr Hitler: The keynote of press comment is complete unanimity insisting on absolute firmness of the British and French desire for nothing short of real permanent peace.

INCOME DEPENDS ON PUBLIC TRUSTEE

Justice Simonds, in the Chancery Division ordered the Countess of Mayo to give up possession of premises in Grevilleplace, St. John's Wood, to the Public Trustee, within 28 days.

Mr. Hubert Rose, who appeared with Mr. Llonel Cohen, K.C., said the judge in Chambers made an order on Dec. 16 last year. This directed that the house should be sold by the Public 'rrustee as soon as was reasonably possible.

Mr. Justice Simonds remarked after reading a document put in by Lady Mayo: "It is an impossible position. It is clear the house is not hers. It is part of the trust property.

"I have read your statement," he said to Lady Mayo, "I am afraid you are not at all well. 1 am sorry you should come here in these distressing circumstances:"

Lady Mayo: The treatment I have had has been terrible. We don't want to have tenants in the hous: if we can have a fixed allowance, but the Public Trustee won't give us anything except what he thinks fit, and that may Lady Mayo will suffer any unbe twopence or nothing. FREIGHT ON SHIPMENT OF MOTOR CAR

Summary Court Judgment Against Shipping Firm

Judgment was given yesterday, in the Summary Court, by Mr. Justice R. E. Lindsell, in favour of the Wai Loong Hong, of No. 148, Wing Lok Street, who claimed the return of $120 from the Jebshun Shipping Co., of No. 70, Connaught Road West, on the ground that the sum was paid to defendants as back freight on shipment of a motor car and which should not have been charged.

The claim was a sequel to the decision not to discharge the motor car shipped by the s.s. Marie Moller from Hongkong to Swatow, on account of the hostilities, at the Chinese port," and the subsequent carriage of the cargo back to the Colony.

5. That if the ship had been able to enter the Port of Swatow and to deliver the cargo at Swatow she would then have been available and would, as customary, have taken on other cargo had such cargo been available from Swatow to Hongkong and thereby earned freight thereon but that the ship did not enter the Port of Swatow by reason of the fact that the Master deemed the Port to be unsafe for the ship and that the danger to the ship was not in-

I can see no true parallel between that case and this. Here it was the ship herself that was compelled by an excepted peril to thin second ground of defence that the

With this submission I am not in agreement. Before this condition can take effect the consignee must have had the opportunity of taking delivery, and its insertion on the face of the bill of lading is evidence of its special and unusual nature, and evidence that it is not intended to apply generally whenever the existence of an excepted peril has been the cause of non-delivery. Nor again in my judgment can the defendants rely on either 9 or 16 of the printed conditions. FATAL FALL "ROBIN HYDE" DIES IN LONDON: A WRITER FRIEND OF CHINA

Newspapermen returning Hankow after the fall of Hauchow reported, with admiration mixed with amusement, that they had last see Iris Wilkinson riding all by herself to advanced artillery positions in South Shantung on a donkey presented to her by General Tang En-po. Before long amusement changed to alarm. Stranded correspondents filtered in one after the other by dangerous and devious routes, but "Robin Hyde" did not appear. It was only after several months had passed that she turned upin Hongkong. The way she got here was characteristic. After the Japanese occupation of Hsuchow she walked, alone, through the war-torn countryside, from Hsuchow to Tsingtao. On her way she was arrested by a Japanese patrol as a spy, stripped and brutally beaten. But she kept on

'DRAGON RAMPANT":

Her last book, "Dragon Ram pant" (Hurst and Blackett, 8s. 6d) was very much like herself. In her writing, as in her conversation, she seemed at times a little incoherent and distracted. But when she got on an issue that really touched her, she spoke and wrote with rare penetration, rare sensitiveness, and complete authority. Her reporting and analysis of facts were disciplined and incisive. Beneath her delicate and querulous exterior there was a muscular and clean-hewing mind, a strong sense of principle and, as her adventures in China showed, a will of steel.

There is much sheer lumber in "Dragon Rampant"—waste of time on unimportant personalities and sentimental wool-gathering. But Wilkinson is dead, hard becausethere is also much that makes it there was so much life beneath one of the notable books of the her, frailty, such indestructible war—a burning passion for truth spirit and will behind her tired and justice, fine, workmanlike figure and sensitive blue eyes.

China was her constant concern.

"I will tell you," she wrote, "what you could do for England. German Fuehrer Addresses Reichstag Deputies At Private Session

NO LIGHTNESS OF HEART SEEN AMONG POPULACE

BERLIN, Aug. 28 (Reuter)-Herr Hitler addressed the Reichstag Deputies at present in Berlin at a private meeting in the new Chancellery.

His address, it is stated, bore testimony to the seriousness of the situation and at the end of his speech the Deputies gave the German Fuehrer a loud ovation.

Seldom has the return of a diplomat been awaited with such expectancy as the arrival of Sir Nevile Henderson's return to Berlin.

The postponement of the British Cabinet from morning to afternoon has increased the tension and even the man in the street, who had not heard much of the diplomatic moves, appears to be aware that much depends on what the message will bring.

Everyone is hoping for a last minute settlement of the crisis and there is not that lightness of heart among the population comparable with the atmosphere of August 1914.

HERR HITLER'S REPLY TO THE FRENCH PREMIER: METHODS DEFENDED

BERLIN, Aug. 28 (Reuter)—A clear demand that Danzig and the Corridor should return to the Reich, was made by Herr Hitler, when he replied to M. Daladier, the French Premier.

The Fuehrer insisted that treaty revision must come and defended his methods of achieving that aim. Others had objected to these methods, but these methods made it possible for him to solve his problems without bloodshed.

Earlier this year, he had made a proposal which shocked the German people. No one but he could have made this in peace, but the question it and it could not be remust be solved one way or another peated. " He would regret it if fate should

EUROPE WHIE INCREASES TENSION HITLER'S AWAITS BRITAIN'S REPLY TO NEW PEACE PLAN

German Fuehrer Addresses Reichstag Deputies At Private Session

NO LIGHTNESS OF HEART SEEN AMONG POPULACE

BERLIN, Aug. 28 (Reuter)—Herr Hitler addressed the Reichstag Deputies at present in Berlin at a private meeting in the new Chancellery.

His address, it is stated, bore testimony to the seriousness of the situation and at the end of his speech the Deputies gave the German Fuehrer a loud ovation.

Seldom has the return of a diplomat been awaited with such expectancy as the arrival of Sir Nevile Henderson's return to Berlin.

The postponement of the British Cabinet from morning to afternoon has increased the tension and even the man in the street, who had not heard much of the diplomatic moves, appears to be aware that much depends on what the message will bring.

Everyone is hoping for a last minute settlement of the crisis and there is not that lightness of heart among the population comparable with the atmosphere of August 1914.

Clear Demand For Return Of Danzig And Corridor

HERR HITLER'S REPLY TO THE FRENCH PREMIER: METHODS DEFENDED

BERLIN, Aug. 28 (Reuter)-A clear demand that Danzig and the Corridor should return to the Reich, was made by Herr Hitler, when he replied to M. Daladier, the French Premier.

The Fuehrer insisted that treaty revision must come and defended his methods of achieving that aim. Others had objected to these methods, but these methods made it possible for him to solve his problems without bloodshed.

Earlier this year, "he had | made a proposal which shocked the German people. No one but he could have made it and it could not be repeated.

PUBLIC EXCITED

If Britain had not encouraged Poland, peace in Europe would have been assured for the next 25 years. By this action public opinion had been excited.

Herr Hitler asked M Daladier how he would have acrea if, after a honourably fought war, a French Province had been cut off and a town like Marsellles forbidden to call itself French.

N. Atlantic Air Mail Service

Trans-Atlantic crossings with commercial load have been accomplished by two of the fourengined Short S. 30 seaplanes drafted for duty on the British North Atlantic air mail service. "Cabot," sister craft of "Caribou" which made the maugural flight, followed her across the Atlantic a week later.

Dead on time "Cabot" left Hythe. Southampton, loaded with mails, a Currency and Fixed Deposits re-cargo of merchandise for Canadlan ceived for one year or shorter markets, and a brace of grouse as gift from Imperial Airways to President Roosevelt. Extra fuel was taken on board in mid-air from s Handley Page Harrow bomber doing "tanker" duty at Foynes Piloted by Captain D. C. T. Bennett "Cabot" headed for Botwood.

Trouble-Free

The sleeve-valve powerplant consisting of four Bristol Perseus XIIc radial air-cooled engines, gave trouble - free running. Crossing of 1,995 miles direct took 164 hours. One hour after landing safely at Botwood, "Cabot" continued her journey to Boucherville.

ENROLMENT PAPERS ANTE - DATED

A prosecution under the Pravention of Corruption Act against two N.C.O.s of the 55th (West Lancashire) Divisional R.A.S.C. (T.A.) said to be the first since the passing of the Military Training Act, was heard at Southport recently.

William Alexander Ringer, 43, of Southport and Robert Ashton, 43 of Ormskirk, were accused of accepting £1 from Richard Stanley Jones and £1 from Gwyn Jones for having placed the date. Apri 26, 1939, on their enrolment papers.

Ringer pleaded not guilty and Ashton guilty.

Mr. G. J. Ball, prosecuting, said it was alleged that the inducement offered to Richard Jones and Gwyn Jones was that if they paid £1 to the defendants their enrolment papers would be ante-dated to prevent them, from being liable for service under the Military Training.

It was the duty of Ringer, a C.Q.M.S., to prepare enlistment papers and on April 28 he was warned that no further recruits petween 20 and 21 would be accepted. On May 15 Gwyn Jones and Richard Jones arrived at the Drill Hall, Southport, and were supproached by Ashton, a lancecorporul.

"WOULD DO THE TRICK"

They told him they were making inquiries about joining the Territorial Army and Ashton, it was alleged, suggested that if they wished to avoid being called up £1 to the Quartermaster-Sergeant would do the trick. The men said they would consider the matter.

In the meantime Gwyn Jones, a newspaper reporter in Liverpool. called on Mr. Blackhurst, Public Relations Officer to the West Lancashire Territorial Association, who gave him two £1 notes, the numbers of which were taken. The two Joneses later went to the Drill Hail and saw Ringer. While Gwyn Jones was signing papers Ringer asked him if he understood the agreement_

"I think that inquiry is very relevant to the case," said Mr. Ball "The men paid the £1 notes to Ashton and the papers being completed Ringer gave them to the officer in charge."

The police were called by telephone he said, and P.s. Laycock interviewed Ringer, who was asked to explain why the forms were dated April 25. Ringer replied "These men were post-carded in the ordinary way to come and complete attestation forms."

"Ashton was then accused of receiving two £1 notes as an inducement to ante-date papers. He replied, "That is correct," and "Am I take all added. blame?"

Ringer was again cautioned said Mr. Ball, and he replied, "Allegations have been made against me and I must take the blame. A bar steward was called and one of the £1 notes was found among his bar money. Ringer said that he gave the note to a sergeant to get a bottle of beer and cigarettes. No money was found on Ringer or in his office, it was stated,

The summonses against him were dismissed, the magistrates saying he did not think it was advisable to give reasons.

Ashton, who said that one of the men told him that if he had to serve he would lose £70, was bound over for 12 months and ordered to pay £5 costs.
